

Statutory Declaration

For security and product liability reasons we are required to have your confirmation of the circumstances of the case in the following form. Before we can provide the name plate we need a legally binding confirmation on your part. We trust you will understand this situation.

Company name _____

Address _____

Phone _____

hereby affirms that on the MVG towbar (tow ball with mounting bracket)

MVG-Type _____

Model _____

Test mark No. _____

- the name plate has been lost
- the name plate has been damaged
- the name plate is missing

(Please tick as appropriate)

Being aware of the consequences of making wrong affirmations under criminal and civil law, we herewith confirm by a legally binding signature that this tow ball with mounting bracket is in a technically perfect condition. No alterations or modifications of any sort have been made. It is undamaged and was not involved in any accident. The name plate sent to us will be duly and permanently attached only to the above mentioned tow ball with mounting bracket.

Place, date

Legally binding signature

In the event of non-compliance with the above mentioned circumstances of the case, MVG mbH, 52249 Eschweiler, shall disclaim all warranties. The delivery of the requested name plate shall only take place after this statutory declaration has been returned.